

My Dadima Wears a Sari.

1. What do we know about Rupa?
 - (A) She has a pet dog.
 - (B) She does not like to wear her dress.
 - (C) She has a very vivid imagination.
 - (D) She went to the Gir Jungle when she was little.
2. Where is Rupa's grandmother from?
 - (A) America.
 - (B) India.
 - (C) Australia.
 - (D) Indonesia.
3. According to Rupa's grandmother, how can they use the sari when she and Rupa go to the beach?
 - (A) They can fan themselves with the end of the sari to keep cool.
 - (B) They can make a pouch with the end of the sari to collect shells.
 - (C) They can make an umbrella with the sari to cover their heads.
 - (D) They can play a game by hiding under the end of the sari.
4. Why does Rupa make a secret knot in her grandmother's saris?
 - (A) To remind her grandmother to hug her.
 - (B) To protect her grandmother from animals' attack.
 - (C) To strain muddy water through the knot.
 - (D) To tear away a piece from the saris and tie a bandage.
5. Dadima is a word in Hindi. What does it mean?
 - (A) Dad.
 - (B) Mom.
 - (C) Grandfather.
 - (D) Grandmother.
6. How does Neha feel when she sees saris in Dadima's room?
 - (A) Bored.
 - (B) Excited.
 - (C) Shocked.
 - (D) Scared.
7. When Rupa asks her grandmother why she does not want to wear anything else except a sari, her grandmother says "because a sari is a sari." What does she most likely mean?
 - (A) A sari represents her culture.
 - (B) A sari means a sari and nothing else.
 - (C) A sari looks better than anything else.
 - (D) A sari is what a woman should wear.
8. Why does Rupa's grandmother give her favorite saris to Rupa and Neha?
 - (A) She knows they can do little with modern clothing.
 - (B) She thinks they should not wear modern clothing anymore.
 - (C) She wants to pass the tradition to the next generation.
 - (D) She hopes they can go back to their own country when they grow up.