

Wangari Maathai

1. What is the story mostly about?
 - (A) A man who saved his children.
 - (B) A woman who made a lot of money.
 - (C) An African who planted many trees.
 - (D) A president who protected trees.
2. What do we know about Kenya?
 - (A) It is a country in Western Asia.
 - (B) It is a democratic country.
 - (C) It is now ruled by the British.
 - (D) Daniel arap Moi is its leader now.
3. Which is true about Wangari?
 - (A) She spoke four languages.
 - (B) She did not go to school.
 - (C) She launched a real-estate project.
 - (D) She gave up after being hurt and imprisoned.
4. What did Wangari discover when she was in the United States?
 - (A) Some places were forbidden to black people.
 - (B) Everything was great in this free, independent country.
 - (C) The cornfields were the same as those at home.
 - (D) There were endangered species such as the blue monkey.
5. How did Wangari feel when she traveled through Kenya to study wildlife?
 - (A) She was glad.
 - (B) She was excited.
 - (C) She was shocked.
 - (D) She was scared.
6. Why does Wangari think a tree is worth much more than its wood?
 - (A) A tree is a treasure for the rich countries.
 - (B) A tree has made her become a great poet.
 - (C) A tree has changed the life of Wangari's mother.
 - (D) A tree provides living places for birds and insects.
7. What prize was Wangari awarded?
 - (A) The Nobel Green Prize.
 - (B) The Nobel Peace Prize.
 - (C) The Nobel Environmental Prize.
 - (D) The Nobel Prize in Literature.
8. According to Wangari, who had an important role to play in their families, in their villages, and on the entire African continent?
 - (A) Wise men.
 - (B) Brave men.
 - (C) Happy women.
 - (D) Confident women.